

LINKING LEARNING EXERCISES

Do you work in a unique clinical practice?

Do you teach, conduct research, or have an administrative role?

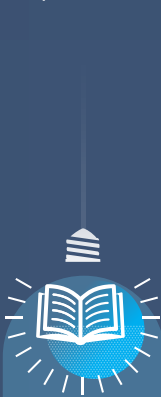

Do you work part-time or as a surgical assistant?

To support various forms of learning the CFPC has developed an innovative means for you to earn five Mainpro+[®] certified credits per activity at your own pace: Linking Learning exercises.

Linking Learning to Administration

E.g., participating on a committee

Linking Learning to Assessment

E.g., reviewing clinical practice guidelines

Linking Learning to Practice

E.g., volunteering in a resource-poor setting

Linking Learning to Research

E.g., preparing a manuscript for publication

Linking Learning to Teaching

E.g., developing the curriculum for a medical education event

HOW TO COMPLETE A LINKING LEARNING FORM

A Linking Learning submission form allows you to reflect on a recent experience or activity and document how it will affect your practice:

STEP 1:
Click ENTER A CPD ACTIVITY.

The screenshot shows the Mainpro+ dashboard for Dr. Dave Williams (999999). The current cycle is 7/1/2018 - 6/30/2020. A red arrow points to the 'ENTER A CPD ACTIVITY' button. The dashboard includes sections for Quick Links, Mainpro+ Program News, Credit Summary, and Incomplete CPD Activities.
